1. Policy Purpose

This policy establishes guidelines for remote work and flexible work arrangements to support employee productivity, work-life balance, and business continuity while maintaining performance standards and team cohesion.

2. Eligibility

Remote work eligibility depends on: role suitability (not all roles can be performed remotely), performance record (no active PIP or formal warnings), tenure (minimum 6 months in current role), and manager approval. Remote work is a privilege, not a right, and may be modified or revoked based on business needs or performance.

3. Work Arrangement Types

3.1 Hybrid (standard): 3 days/week in office, 2 days remote. Core in-office days: Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday.

3.2 Primarily Remote: 1–2 days/week in office, requires VP approval.

3.3 Fully Remote: Exception basis only, requires C-suite approval and geographic policy compliance.

3.4 Flexible Hours: Core hours 10 AM–3 PM local time with flexibility outside core hours, requires manager approval.

4. Equipment & Security Requirements

Company provides: laptop, headset, and mobile phone where applicable. Employees must: use company VPN when accessing company systems remotely, maintain a secure, private workspace, comply with all IT security policies, not allow family members to use company equipment, and use only company-approved cloud services for work data.

5. Performance Expectations

Remote employees are held to the same performance standards as in-office employees. Employees must: be available during agreed working hours, respond to messages within 2 hours during core hours, attend all required meetings with camera on, meet all productivity and quality metrics, and use collaboration tools (Teams, Jira) to maintain visibility.

6. Home Office Stipend

Eligible remote employees receive a one-time home office setup stipend of $500 and a monthly internet stipend of $50. Reimbursement requires receipts and manager approval. Stipend is reported as taxable income per IRS guidelines. Employees who leave within 12 months of receiving the setup stipend repay a prorated amount.

7. Health & Safety

Employees are responsible for maintaining a safe home work environment. Ergonomic guidelines are provided on the intranet. Work-related injuries at home should be reported to HR within 24 hours. Workers' compensation may apply to home office injuries occurring during work hours in work activities.

8. International & Out-of-State Remote Work

Working from another country or state requires prior HR and Legal approval due to tax, employment law, and benefits implications. Approval must be obtained before commencing work from a new location. Unapproved international work may result in immediate suspension of remote privileges.
